Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Frontend Developer position at ADLIB. With a comprehensive background in Full Stack development and a proven track record of creating innovative web solutions, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills to your award-winning eCommerce agency.

As an engineer skilled in AI, IoT, Full Stack development, and Computer Vision, I have consistently leveraged technology to craft dynamic and user-centric applications. The commitment of ADLIB to elevating the growth of iconic brands through cutting-edge technologies resonates deeply with my professional goals.

During my tenure as the Founder & CEO of Plaxeria, a dynamic web development agency, I spearheaded the creation of innovative and user-centric web solutions. Leveraging my expertise in Full Stack technologies, including Node.js, React, Angular, and more, I collaborated with a talented team to empower local businesses to establish their online presence and individuals to strengthen their digital footprint. Our commitment to merging cutting-edge technology with creative design resulted in impactful solutions that elevated businesses and individuals alike in the digital landscape.

In my role as an Artificial Intelligence Intern at CodePlanet Technologies, I worked with AI and Machine Learning technologies to enhance automation and productivity. My experience at Bolt IOT provided practical insights into IoT, Cloud Computing, and Machine Learning, aligning well with the technology-focused culture at ADLIB.

The collaborative environment at ADLIB, combined with the opportunity to work on greenfield development projects, aligns with my vision of delivering creative and innovative solutions. My proficiency in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and expertise in modern tech like React and TypeScript make me well-equipped to contribute effectively to your team.

In addition to technical skills, I possess excellent communication and interpersonal abilities, positioning me to work directly with clients and cross-functional teams. The prospect of being part of ADLIB's journey to create exceptional eCommerce experiences is inspiring.

Thank you for considering my application. I am eager to further discuss how my skills and experience align with ADLIB's vision. Please find my attached resume for your reference.

Sincerely,

Priyanshu Lohar
